PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Danny Shelton

Dear 3ABN Family,

Spring is an incredible time of year for many reasons. I love spring because it's an annual reminder that God can bring visible life back, even after death caused by the existence of sin on this earth.

I recently read Job chapter 14 at my aunt Ruby's funeral. Verses 1-2 say, "Man who is born of woman is of few days and full of trouble. He comes forth like a flower and fades away; he flees like a shadow and does not continue."

Then verses 7-15 say, "For there is hope for a tree, if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, and that its tender shoots will not cease. Though its root may grow old in the earth, and its stump may die in the ground, yet at the scent of water it will bud and bring forth branches like a plant. But man dies and is laid away; indeed he breathes his last and where is he? As water disappears from the sea, and a river becomes parched and dries up, so man lies down and does not rise.

Till the heavens are no more, they will not awake nor be roused from their sleep. Oh, that You would hide me in the grave, that You would conceal me until Your wrath is past, that You would appoint me a set time, and remember me! If a man dies, shall he live again? All the days of my hard service I will wait, till my change comes. Thou shall call, and I will answer You; You shall desire the work of Your hands."

To me these are some of the most comforting words in the Bible! Every spring is that constant reminder that our Creator God has not forgotten us! Man is on this earth but for a short season. But the good news is that when we give our lives to Jesus we will be caught up in the clouds or raised from the dead to hear Jesus say, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."

Yes, "What a day that will be when my Jesus I shall see!"

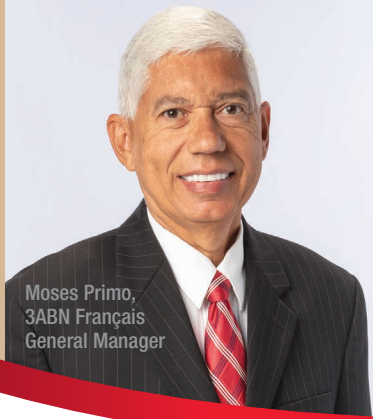

3ABN has been proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ for nearly 35 years. Literally, multitudes of people have accepted Jesus as Lord and Savior of their lives because of your prayers and financial support of 3ABN.

I can tell you that the enemy is hard at work to try to divide and impede the work of taking the three angels' messages of Revelation 14 to the world, but with your help, 3ABN will continue to be a beacon to a lost and dying world!

MOVING FORWARD WITH God's Blessing

by Bobby Davis

Moses Primo is not only 3ABN's director of broadcasting and engineering, but also the general manager of 3ABN Français, our French language network; and although many know something about this network, most do not know of its unique challenges.

The Challenges

As Moses begins, it becomes clear that the production of French programming has not been easy. "There are true seekers with sincere hearts, but we face many difficulties in reaching such a diverse audience," he begins. Under those conditions, religious messages are not a priority— especially to a diverse and mostly secular audience.

"There are nearly 285 million people who speak French in the world," Moses continues. "They live in France and other European, South American, and African countries, as well as many islands in the Caribbean, so we search for a variety of speakers from all those areas. However, many viewers outside of France live in nucleus communities, like those in Québec, Canada. The Québécois community is very unique and doesn't mingle much with others in this French-speaking Canadian Province. In the same way, the Caribbean population has a somewhat different accent from those who live in France, so some European viewers are not interested in listening to French Caribbean-style programming.

"With all this in mind, we try to mix them together and trust the Holy Spirit to bring our programs to those who are searching for truth.

"Volunteers like Rose-hélène Bolo in Martinique are a tremendous help to us in so many ways. She is constantly on the lookout for good speakers and new program opportunities.

"In addition, we also receive excellent programs from Wayne Atwood at Mieux Vivre in Québec. We've recorded speakers like Pastor Charly Reson from Paris and in this month's cover page we have Pastor Jean Jose Elysee from Canada, who along with his wife Elizabeth and good friend Francine Gelin, just finished recording a 34-part series called "L'apocalypse - Un Livre d'Espérance" (Revelation - A Book of Hope)."

The Holy Spirit's Work

Moses says he prays for the Holy Spirit to continue connecting viewers with these programs in marvelous ways. "I have experience in dealing with multi-cultural people," he says. "In fact, I met a woman in Puerto Rico who did not speak Spanish, but came to an evangelistic meeting anyway. As she left the church, she was full of joy because the message had touched her heart. When I addressed her in Spanish, she didn't have a clue what I was saying, but when I switched to English, she told me she understood everything the pastor had said during his sermon—in Spanish! I firmly believe the Holy Spirit translated every word of that sermon for her, and she was blessed. I know for a fact that this happened, so I'm encouraged to do my best to get different speakers who proclaim the three angels' messages of Revelation 14 in their own unique way. Then we'll allow the Holy Spirit to use these programs as He sees fit to reach the audience He knows will hear it.

"The evidence speaks for itself," Moses concludes. Although some of our programs in Caribbean French are not well accepted in some French regions because of cultural differences, the Holy Spirit is drawing viewers to 3ABN Français' message because when I check the analytics each month from VisionTV, I see we have a consistent and growing audience in the United Kingdom of thousands of viewers. Then, as I look at the analytics of those who stream our network online, I see we have other thousands of viewers around the world. These are proof that there is a need, and that 3ABN Français is meeting that need. There are sincere souls who are hearing the three angels' messages in French every day. We pray for the Holy Spirit to do His work and guide us, even though we are few."

Philippians 4:13 promises that we can do all things through Christ, which strengthens us. It's a promise Moses and his volunteers claim, even as they face difficult odds. However, God is faithful and He continues to bless 3ABN Français' ministry.

Thank you for your prayers and please consider donating to this network for new programs. You may reach Moses Primo directly at (618) 627-7650, by email at 3abnfrancais@3ABN.org, or through their website, 3abnfrancais.org. ☺

3ABN'S Sound Center

Our 3ABN Sound Center was built in 2000, but Danny Shelton's dream for a recording studio began much earlier.

"Danny had been recording music for many years," says E.T. Everett, 3ABN's Sound Center manager and producer, "and his initial intent was to record instrumental tracks in Nashville, Tennessee, and then record vocal tracks here. But for different reasons, his attempts to build a studio never worked out. Then, at a 3ABN Rally in Oregon in the late 90s, he looked up at me and said, 'That's it. God has impressed me that it's time to build a recording studio, but you have to do it.'"

"I was shocked," E.T. admits, "but soon I was given confirmation."

Everything Falls in Place

Danny began drawing out plans for the Sound Center, but the size of the building kept increasing. Meanwhile, E.T. contacted a music store in Nashville that was selling a new recording system they wanted to use. "The owner offered us the complete system for almost nothing!" she exclaims.

E.T. says they soon realized the Sound Center would not only be a recording studio, but a witnessing tool, as well, since even some of the construction workers' lives were touched and transformed by the Spirit of God.

"Danny asked his personal friend Bobby Bradley, a well-known Nashville audio engineer, to work in our studio and look for an audio board. However, when it came time to install it, it was obvious that our needs had increased, and the board we purchased was not large enough. Bobby found a much larger Rembrandt board and the dealer was willing to give us several thousand dollars off, so Danny stepped out in faith," E.T. says. "However, that night, Danny worried that he might have misread God's will—until the Lord reassured him, Danny, I'll supply according to the measure of your faith. When you started, your faith was to build a small studio; but as you built it, your faith grew, so I have supplied more." E.T.'s eyes well up in tears. "Don't ever put God in a box," she says, "because we used that smaller console in our Worship Center, and the larger one was exactly what we needed!"

Danny and E.T. had recorded with many of the best musicians in Nashville, and the friendships they developed often turned into opportunities to minister to them—especially when they came up to record in the new 3ABN Sound Center. "No one has ever complained about the three-hour drive," E.T. says, "and actually, they get pretty upset if their music contractor doesn't pick them to come! When they're here, we're able to serve, laugh, and pray together. Danny's desire is for us to minister to them, as well as record music."

Michael Younkin has worked with 3ABN's television production team for many years, but one day E.T. asked him if he was familiar with Pro Tools, and he told her he had training in that, as well. "Michael is now an important part of our Sound Center team, and I love working with him," she says.

God Puts a Network Together

Last year, 3ABN's Praise Him Music Network took up residence in the Sound Center. Tim Parton and E.T. met years ago when he played for the famed gospel group, Gold City. "Tim became the foundation of our musician tracking team, and for many years, he was the only one to touch our piano," she says.

"Last year, Ryan Day, an extraordinary vocalist, contacted us about recording a project. He had worked for many years as an evangelist for Amazing Facts, but when he came to record, Danny heard him and invited him to sing on the new Give Him Glory project. It wasn't long before he was invited to join Tim on the Praise Him Music Network, and he is a great asset to that network.

"I've watched our equipment go from analog to digital, and we've all had to stretch and learn," E.T. concludes. "In fact, I often wonder if I'm the only 70-year-old woman who gets to do this every day!" she adds.

"There is a sweetness here, and all of us have a love for music and a love for God. We are all thankful that we get to play a part in what God is doing at the 3ABN Sound Center." ☺

WORDS THAT Changed My Life

How did a photographer and graphic artist from Russia end up working for 3ABN? We asked Svetlana (Sveta) Christian, and here's her amazing story.

Born in the small village of Kerzhenets in the Soviet Union, Sveta lived a happy life with her two sisters. Her parents worked at a lumberyard, and although the Cold War was raging, she says they were hardly aware of it. "We didn't have a lot of money," she says, "but I still had fun. I went camping with the Young Pioneers—the Communist equivalent of the Scouts, and enjoyed other childhood activities. When it came to religion, most people didn't go to church, and we didn't either; but my grandmother was religious, and like most old people, she had some Russian Orthodox icons or pictures in her home that she prayed to."

After high school, Sveta was accepted at a prestigious university in Nizhny Novgorod, earning a degree in Computational Mathematics and Cybernetics that launched her career in graphic design and photography; but Mikhail Gorbachev's perestroika economic reforms plunged the country into near collapse, and the people were struggling to survive. "By then I was married and I kept thinking about my children, the lack of food, and the fact that soon we would all die," Sveta says, "and I asked myself, Is this all there is? Work is crazy, people are crazy, and there's no hope. What happened to my country?"

"By 1992, everyone was searching—some looked to Eastern religions, others to palm reading, and still others to ancient history. Then, all of a sudden, ads for

John Carter's series on archeology and ancient Egyptian mysteries appeared all over the city—at bus stops, on radio and television, even the talk show hosts were discussing it. 'Come to the sports arena and I'll have answers for you!' he promised, and everybody wanted to go. I began attending, and every word I heard was like someone telling me, 'This is true!' My eyes were opened, my heart was softened, and I understood why things were the way they were. I studied the Bible lessons with my coworkers and when they gave me my first Bible, I sat down and read it from cover to cover. It seemed that every conversation I had with friends came back to what we'd just read in Scripture! I was baptized on June 6, 1992, in the Volga River, and joined the Seventh-day Adventist Church along with several thousand others. I had some problems when I told my employer I would need Sabbaths off," she admits; "but because the graphic designer I worked with lacked computer skills, my boss agreed—as long as I promised to work on Sundays."

"We Need You"

Pastor Carter's translator made an appeal the next year for volunteers to help with his second series, but Sveta felt she was too busy. However, she had a dream that changed her mind. "I dreamed I got off a bus to buy a bottle of water, and on the way back, I saw the translator again, saying, 'We need you!' Those words in that dream changed my mind and I decided to help—as I did again, in 1994. Then I began volunteering with my new church at the 3ABN Russian Evangelism Center. One day Julia Outkina, 3ABN Russia's executive director, asked me to come work at 3ABN Russia. I accepted the job but it was a difficult decision because my husband was not happy about the cut in my salary. Unfortunately, alcoholism and infidelity eventually brought us to divorce. We'd just bought an apartment, and to make ends meet, I also worked as a seamstress at night. I barely got three hours of sleep, and many times we had no food. But then I'd come home and find a bag of food my mother or some friends had left. God provided in miraculous ways.

"I was able to apply my experience as a designer and photographer at 3ABN Russia, and we began publishing newsletters and booklets on health, gardening, and testimonies. We worked on the New Life Bible Lessons, children's literature, and even on some new TV program sets. Then Julia invited me to visit 3ABN in America with her, and something unexpected happened. Someone anonymously gave some money for me to buy clothes. My friend wouldn't tell me who it was, but I finally got her to tell me it was Jay Christian, the manager for 3ABN Radio, whose wife had died earlier that year. Back home, I sent him an email saying thank you, and we kept corresponding, becoming friends at first. Then, three years later, he proposed, giving me 51 white roses and a letter saying, "Only God really knows what I feel inside, and only He can tell you what you really feel." I still have that letter, because when I read it, I feel the presence of God.

Moving to America wasn't easy for Sveta. "My family was still in Russia, and I didn't know the English language. But 3ABN has been a very good family, and now I work as a photographer and designer for our publishing department. I appreciate what God has given me, and I'm a different woman today because He has changed me. He has truly taught me to be happy with what I have, and I want to do all I can for Him in gratitude and humility." ☺

Who knew 3ABN would find a huge blessing in a wall? Well, new technology has done just that, making life a lot easier for set designers and construction workers who build large sets.

Flexibility and Speed

We began using a micro-LED wall in our Worship Center several years ago, and have steadily kept adding to it, as the prices go down. This giant backdrop of 192 panels allows us to have still pictures that look like walls, or project full-motion video behind our presenters. We use it for 3ABN Camp Meetings and also in our popular 3ABN Sabbath School Panel. Setup is now as simple as placing the desk and chairs, and we're ready to record! In new programs like, The Creator Revealed with Dr. Timothy Standish, panels are also used to simulate a giant TV monitor.

The Advantages Are Significant

The savings in time and materials are considerable, so we're stepping out in faith to purchase another wall of micro-LED panels for a second studio. If the Holy Spirit impresses you to support this project, please earmark your donation to Studio Remodeling/LED Walls, and send it to 3ABN, Post Office Box 220, West Frankfort, Illinois, 62896. Thank you for helping us be efficient and produce even more programming for the glory of God!
