PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Danny Shelton

Dear 3ABN Family,

We serve an awesome God! This morning I was counting my blessings, naming them one by one; and today, I want to encourage you that God is on your side and that He has good plans for you. Jeremiah 29:11 (NIV) says, “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

When Jesus was hanging on the cross, it was all about you and me. It was love that held Jesus to the tree. It was not the nails, it was His great love for each and every one of His creation.

When I was a youngster, my mother and I used to sing a song called, “Count Your Blessings.” Some of you might be old enough to remember it. It goes something like this:

“When upon life’s billows you are tempest-tossed,
When you are discouraged, thinking all is lost,
Count your many blessings, name them one by one,
And it will surprise you what the Lord has done.”

The chorus says:

“Count your blessings, name them one by one,
Count your blessings, see what God has done!
Count your blessings, name them one by one,
Count your many blessings, see what God has done.”

Today, you are one of the many blessings I’m thanking God for, and I want to thank you personally for your prayers and financial support. This letter is meant to be encouragement for each one of you, as you are special in God’s sight! I know the devil is out to steal, kill, and destroy, according to John 10:10. But, in the last half of this verse, Jesus says, “I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.” Before the devil has time to discourage you today, “count your many blessings, name them one by one.”

Please ask the Lord what He would have you do in support of 3ABN. Every dollar you send is earmarked for “souls for the kingdom of God.” It’s a big world, but we can reach it as we join hands together!

Thank you, and may God richly bless you abundantly more than you could ever ask or think!

Danny Shelton
3ABN Founder/President

“Today, you are one of the many blessings I’m thanking God for...”

Prepared to Serve by Bobby Davis THE BERGMANNS COME TO 3ABN

Even as we say goodbye to our friend and Chief Financial Officer, Brian Hamilton, and his wife Diane, we say hello to our new CFO and Treasurer, Jason Bergmann, and his wife Francine. As we spoke, it was obvious the Lord brought them to 3ABN and had prepared them to serve Him in their new positions.

Seeking the Lord's Will

Jason was born into a Seventh-day Adventist home and raised in New Jersey. “My mother worked as a home health aide and my father was an instrument technician, but ran our landscaping business,” he says.

“My childhood was filled with outdoor activities—doing landscaping, camping, fishing, and a lot of hiking. Mother instilled Christian values in us, and from the beginning, I knew I was different than most of my school friends who didn’t know Jesus.”

He briefly joined and excelled in high school baseball and track, but his refusal to compete on Saturday soon caused problems. “The Lord has been very active in my life since childhood,” Jason says, “and although I was disappointed, it wasn’t a difficult choice because I knew I was serving the Lord, and not my coaches.”

God-Given Passion

Jason says he has always had a passion for accounting, organization, and cash flow management. After college he was offered a position as senior accountant with the Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, and within five years, he’d become their associate treasurer. As his career progressed, he worked in the treasury department of the Washington Conference and then as treasurer for the Nevada/Utah Conference before taking the position of portfolio manager for the money market mutual fund at the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists.

“My passion is operational efficiency,” he explains, “and I believe the Lord blesses when we seek Him for ways to make our efforts more efficient, grow His resources, and evaluate our stewardship.”

Where God Needs Them Next

Although Jason’s next position proved challenging, he began reflecting on what God would have him do—and that’s when he reconnected with a former friend and boss, Brian Hamilton, from the Michigan Conference. “Brian was planning to retire after over 11 years of service at 3ABN, and was looking for his replacement,” Jason says. After his interview, 3ABN hired Jason as their new CFO and treasurer.

“Work at this ministry is like a breath of fresh air!” he says. “I’m thrilled to work with sincere Christians who are willing to serve the Lord and trust Him for all our needs. Even though I’ve spent many years managing money, God’s calculations are always amazing. He’s always faithful and willing to show us His way. I believe the Lord wants us to strive for high ethics, morals, and integrity. It’s all about our intentions and motives; are they good or selfish? That’s what determines, in part, our value and worth for His service.”

As our new 3ABN Kids Network general manager, Francine is excited to see how the Lord will lead. “I was raised in Berrien Springs, Michigan, by my grandparents, Raoul and Louise Dederen,” she says. “They had a wonderful influence on my spiritual life, and by age 12, I was teaching a kindergarten Sabbath School class.

“I chose a career in education, and met and married Jason at Andrews University in 1995. We both worked for the Michigan Conference, where I received my master’s in curriculum and instruction; then, ten years later, we moved to Washington State. That’s where we adopted our baby daughter Amanda, and I was so blessed to be able to stay home with her when we moved to Nevada,” she beams. “My passion is helping young people learn about Jesus, and bringing alive the stories that reflect His character. I’d like 3ABN Kids Network to connect with a wider range of children,” she continues. “We need to reach all our young people groups, and continue to give them valuable programming. I want to connect them with Jesus and help them set goals so they discover God’s plan for their lives!”

Francine plans to use her teaching experience to collaborate and network with other organizations in developing creative educational content that teaches values for Christ-centered growth. God is blessing her with fresh ideas and new ways to reach God’s kids and encourage them to dedicate their lives to Him in their youth.

Amanda has been a great inspiration for her parents, too. “She has certainly made us less focused on ourselves and more focused on others,” Jason says. “She’s also internalized Christian values,” Francine adds. “She loves sharing with others, and observing her character development warms our hearts. We’ll be encouraging families to do activities together, whether it’s getting outdoors for a Sabbath afternoon walk or helping a family in need. 3ABN Kids Network is here to reflect the Lord and His light, preparing children for a future with Jesus.” ☺

Wherever God Leads

This is a month of transition for our Accounting Department as we say goodbye to our dear friends, Brian and Diane Hamilton, and say hello to our new CFO/Treasurer, Jason Bergmann, and his wife Francine.

Before coming to 3ABN, Brian's many years of service to the Lord include pastoral and treasury work for the Michigan, Wisconsin, and Southern California Conferences of Seventh-day Adventists. Throughout those years, Diane raised two sons, worked as administrative assistant to education and youth departments in those Conferences, and also here at 3ABN, mostly in our Planned Giving and Trust Services department.

A Faith-building Journey

"That call to be 3ABN's CFO eleven years ago was totally unexpected," Brian says, "but we quickly saw God's providence, and it's been a faith-building journey ever since. I discovered that 3ABN is definitely dependent on God every day for our daily bread, and it's been exciting to see how He leads. Just as an example, yesterday I received word that the bills due this week amounted to roughly $240,000, and as I looked at our checking account, I realized we couldn't cover them all immediately. So I instructed our Accounts Payable department to pay half of them, and then prayed, Lord, I believe I'm supposed to pay half and then wait. Well, this morning, we received a check for $125,000 from one of God's saints who had passed away recently, but had remembered 3ABN in their will, years ago. Their donation blessed us on the very day we needed it! This has happened many times, and it's encouraging to know that the Lord is alive and well aware of our needs. As long as we're faithful to our mission, God continues to bless us.

"You know, over time, I've learned not to fret and worry about these things because God always supplies our needs. I'm often reminded of the words of Jesus in Matthew 6:34, 'Tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.' We're careful not to spend recklessly, and with considerable prayer, we plan within the boundaries God has given us."

A Sabbatical

Brian and Diane are looking forward to the rest and restoration that will come as they take a sabbatical from work. "That term comes from a biblical principle found in the Bible, where God instructed His people to give many things a rest on the seventh year," Brian explains. "The fields would rest from growing crops, the slaves were freed from service, and debts were forgiven on the seventh year. In general, God's people haven't embraced this concept, but I believe He would like all of us to take a rest every seventh year to recharge our spiritual batteries. I think this applies to our lives, and not just to agricultural crops," he continues, "and after our sabbatical, Diane and I will see where the Lord takes us next."

"We plan to spend this next year in our RV as we visit our children and relatives," Diane explains, "and along the way, we'll also be asking for divine appointments where we can be of service to others."

Prison Ministry

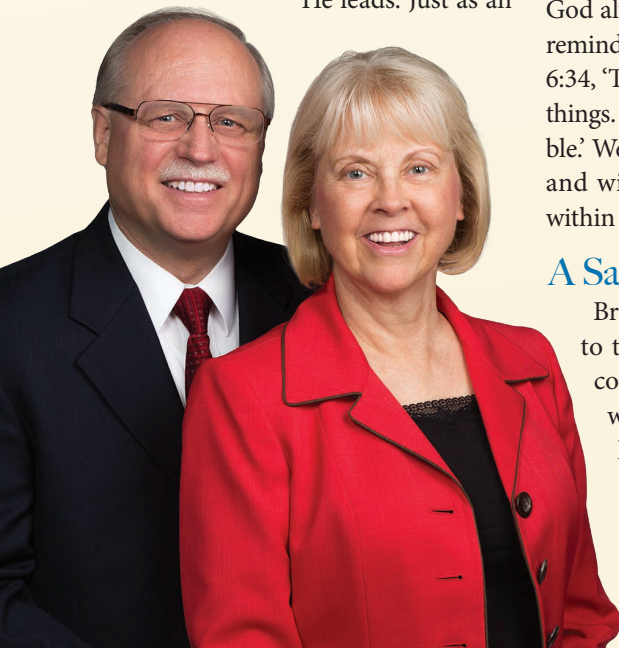

For some years now, the Hamiltons have been involved in prison ministry. "I'm convinced that Satan is so incensed with 3ABN that he personally attacks most anyone that comes here in any kind of leadership capacity," Brian says. "Our attack was a tragedy that involved our son and put him in prison pretty much for life. This was a very unusual and unexpected tragedy that I view as a satanic attack on him and on us. But God says in Romans 8:28, that

'All things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose.' Today we have a son who is a missionary for God in a very dark place, and then, for us, the Lord has opened the door to prison ministry, which we'd never considered before. Working with inmates has brought great healing to us. And when a man or a woman surrenders to Jesus, it affects their whole family."

Diane explains, "Often, the only visitors they see are us, because after about five years, their families have deserted them. Now we're their family, and although we cannot give them individualized attention, they know we love them."

Brian has helped to raise awareness at 3ABN about a tremendous need, and now we spend around $100,000 a year on study Bibles for inmates. "We send them Bible studies and other inspired literature, and we also partner with the Christmas Behind Bars ministry to produce our Free Indeed programs, shot entirely in prison facilities."

We thank God for Brian and Diane's service; and although they'll be sorely missed, we're comforted by knowing that God needs them somewhere else, and that He will guide their steps all the way. ☺

Encouraging Letters and Emails

Once again, our mailbox is full of cards, letters, and emails from viewers and listeners all over the world. We give God all the glory, and want to share a few of them with you.

PROGRAMS

Julia emailed us saying, “Quite by accident, I discovered that the rolling banner for 3ABN’s Sabbath School Panel is a link to where all the programs can be viewed [on 3ABN’s YouTube Channel]! I was so excited to see that each program could be accessed with just a click of my mouse! I often send the Sabbath School Quarterly to friends and family, and they’re thrilled to be able to follow along, too.... Thank you for making your programs so readily available online!”

CHURCH

Mary Jane, in Florida, is grateful for a different reason. She writes, “I am 92 years old and sight impaired; and now that I’m in assisted living, all of you at 3ABN have become my church. I cannot tell you how much your programs mean to me!”

Wanda sent us a beautiful email, saying, “I am 59 years old, in poor health, and unable to leave the house; but I long for a church family and fellowship. I just watched an episode of 3ABN Live! and at the end, Tim Parton included me in a way that made my tears flow. I consider you all my family, even if you don’t know me—and Mr. Parton, you will never know how much your words of inclusion meant.”

MUSIC

We get many letters of gratitude for the music on 3ABN. Here’s one from Rosa, in Arizona, who says, “The 3ABN Radio Music Channel is the best thing to happen at 3ABN in a long time! My husband is a Vietnam veteran, and he and I listen to it via our Roku box. My husband was raised as a Seventh-day Adventist, but during his time in the military, he fell away from his faith. Then, in 1989, we attended the Redwood Camp Meeting and met Danny Shelton. We also heard Doug Batchelor speak, and my husband made the decision to be rebaptized at that camp meeting! My husband is the one who wanted to make sure I let you know what a blessing the 3ABN Radio Music Channel is.”

PRISONERS

A huge part of our ministry is to those who are incarcerated, and we see the

“Because of 3ABN, I have been a Seventh-day Adventist Christian for over a year. It has made such a change in my life!”

power of the Holy Spirit at work in their lives. Shawn, in Tennessee, says, “I have some good news! Starting this month, we are going to have our first Seventh-day Adventist worship service at our prison. It took a lot of effort... but I believe that your prayers are what have allowed this to happen. I want to thank your ministry for your stewardship, and for not failing to ‘Remember those who are in bonds as though you were bound with them, and those who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in body.’ Hebrews 13:3.”

RESULTS

Here are just a few of the results of the Holy Spirit’s influence on the hearts of those we’ve been able to reach.

Betty, in Iowa, writes, “God is using 3ABN in a mighty way. Yet another gentleman walked into our church two Sabbaths ago, saying he had been watching 3ABN for quite some time and had decided he needed to look for a Seventh-day Adventist Church. He was so excited to be there, and thought the people were wonderful... God is bringing His people in, Praise the Lord!”

Linda, in Oregon, writes, “Because of 3ABN, I have been a Seventh-day Adventist Christian for over a year. It has made such a change in my life! I’m excited to say that now my husband is going to church with me!”

Valerie writes, “I had been a faithful viewer of 3ABN for about nine years when God woke me up out of my stupor. He placed a burden regarding Revelation upon my heart, and I did a search for it on my cable box and The Revelation of Jesus Christ appeared.... God made it very clear to me that what you were airing was biblical truth. I have been blessed beyond measure, and became a Seventh-day Adventist because of 3ABN.”

SUPPORT

We are so grateful for your faithful prayers and financial support. You make it possible for us to continue proclaiming the gospel and God’s end-times messages to the world. Jean, in Missouri, writes, “Your station is truly a blessing! As I am writing, there is a joy in my heart and praises on my lips to the Almighty for freedom of worship. Due to the Lord’s continual blessings, I am able to enclose double my annual contribution again this year. What a wonderful God we serve!”

Helena, in Texas, says, “Every year, during the month of November, I ask the Lord to give me the funds to send to each one of your networks. It never fails. He always provides.”

With God’s blessings and your support, 3ABN’s ministry continues to reach those who are searching for truth. ☺

A Fresh Approach to Programming

Excitement is building for our very first 3ABN Kids Camp next month! This ambitious and innovative approach to producing new children's programming will take place June 24–27 with four teams of 10 children ages 7–12. This project will keep our television studios hopping with activity as each team takes turns recording programs centered around Bible stories, a Bible knowledge quest, exercise, cooking, crafts, a musical sing-along, and The Wall of Mystery! This is only the beginning of fresh program ideas that will soon be available on our 3ABN Kids Network.

"There's so much enthusiasm as we work together to come up with ideas that will engage our young people for this Kids Camp," says Francine Bergmann, 3ABN Kids Network General Manager. "We're actively involving our children in creating excitement, while developing Christ-centered programs for our networks that will be seen around the world."

Shelley Quinn, 3ABN Program Development Manager and Producer, agrees and points out that the kids will not be rehearsed before the programs. "Our prayer is to make this event a fun-filled spiritual experience for the youth, and capture their genuine, unedited experience," she says.

3ABN director, Brad Walker, is largely credited with the idea of a marathon week of new programs. "The excitement is contagious in our 3ABN control rooms," he says, "and I work with the best production crew in the world. The truth is that we're preparing to record over 112 episodes on seven different sets in four days! Many would say that's impossible, but we know that with God, anything is possible. It's going to be a blast, and I can't wait!"

Jill Morikone, 3ABN's vice president and COO shares the enthusiasm. "Christ was passionate about children—taking time for them, ministering to their needs, and leading them to a knowledge of Him," she says. "I'm excited about our upcoming Kids Camp, and the opportunity to present the gospel to our kids in an engaging format that will get them involved!"

If your child would like to participate, please visit our website, 3ABNKidsCamp.tv, and fill out an interest form. Parents can register their kids for one day or all four days, but please register soon, since we're limited to 40 children a day.

Please pray for the programs, equipment, staff, and especially the countless children and adults around the world whose hearts will be touched with the joy of serving Jesus.

Baked Peaches

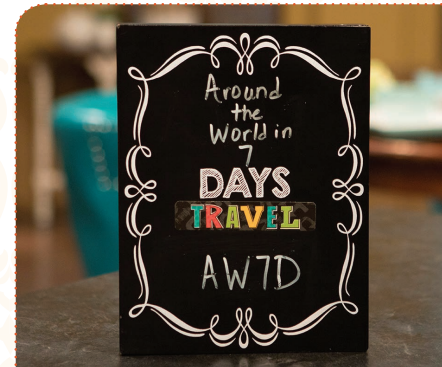

by Nicole Braxton

INGREDIENTS

- 4 ripe peaches, pitted and cut in half
- 2 Tbsp honey or brown sugar
- 1 tsp vanilla
- 2 Tbsp walnuts
- 2 Tbsp vegan butter
