PRESIDENT'S LETTER | Greg Morikone

Dear 3ABN Family,

There's a great song I like that says, "I'm so glad I'm a part of the family of God." Our biological family is a blessing, but to be a part of God's family is an incredible thought! Thank you for being a part of our 3ABN family and for blessing people around the world through your faithful prayers and financial support.

We love hearing from you, whether by phone call, letter, email, or even a message through social media. Thank you for sharing your praise reports and prayer requests, too! Here are a couple of heartfelt letters we received recently:

One viewer writes, "I'm a Sunday church member, but since the pandemic, I've been watching 3ABN. I've been trying to keep the Sabbath and am praying for guidance on this new journey." Another viewer writes, "No one in my family would listen to the reasoning as to why I became a Seventh-day Adventist. So it means so much to me when you say, 'From your family at 3ABN!' I get goosebumps when I hear that. Thank you! You are my family!"

Since we're talking about family, I want to tell you how much we're looking forward to seeing you at our 3ABN Homecoming Camp Meeting. Jill and I love many things about camp meeting, like the spiritual nourishment from all the Bible-based messages, the inspiring music—and especially the opportunity to fellowship with you, our brothers and sisters in Christ. We've already heard that many of you are planning to be here again, and many more plan to attend in person for the first time. We can't wait to see you!

I hope you have September 23–25 marked on your calendar to join us in person, or via television, radio, or 3ABNPlus.tv. Thank you for being part of our family!

Greg Morikone
3ABN President

COMING SOON TO 3ABN!

Through the Eyes of a Foodie
With Risë Rafferty, M.S., RDN

Ever wonder what a foodie sees in Scripture? Risë's approach is a fresh look at some "rubber meets the road," (or should we say "food hits the mouth") topics from gut health to superfoods that are educational and inspirational—all in less than two minutes. Whew!

DISCOVERING "SOMETHING BETTER"

by Bobby Davis

We have been looking forward to gathering safely again for a weekend of spiritual renewal, and we're excited by the prospect of seeing many of you during our first in-person camp meeting this month. That wonderful reality is made even better by the fact that Pastor James Rafferty, our new 3ABN Director of Discipleship, will be our featured speaker!

Something Better

When asked about his theme, Pastor Rafferty says, "If there were no book of Revelation in the New Testament, our next option would be the book of Hebrews. The parallels between these books reveal a faith-inspiring picture of 'something better' than this world has to offer—a better God, a better man, a better rest, better promises, a better priest, a better sanctuary, a better covenant, a better sacrifice. All this leads to a better experience for the final generation of believers on planet Earth.

"The phrase 'something better' is used 13 times in its 13 chapters," he continues, "and everything is nuanced by this 'something better' relationship God wants to have with us. As we teach the three angels' messages of Revelation 14, we traditionally introduce people to the Sabbath, the Sanctuary, the Judgment, and all of the principles we believe in, using a very doctrinal approach with proof texts from the Bible. But Hebrews does that in a relational way. It introduces a better sanctuary, a better priest, a better sacrifice, and a better covenant.

"That better covenant is about God writing His Law on our hearts, and while it's all about the Ten Commandments, it's relational. That better Sanctuary is all about the Judgment, but it's relational—it's about how Christ is interceding for us, how He's seeking to forgive our sins and cleanse us, taking away our guilt."

Pastor Rafferty says that he'll be sharing four messages, and that each title can be connected to a phrase in Revelation. "Love Languages' relates to 'The Everlasting Gospel,'" he explains, "and 'Heart Transplanter' relates to 'the Commandments of God' and how He changes our hearts. 'Faith Factor' relates to 'Faith in Jesus,' and 'The Finisher' relates to 'Following the Lamb Wherever He Goes.'"

Reconnecting

"The Apostle Paul transitioned from a very theological and doctrinal relationship with God to a relational experience with Christ," Pastor Rafferty continues. "This transition qualified him to write to the Jews in words that were so different in their approach. Hebrews is an appeal to the Jews of his day, and it's God's appeal to the spiritual Jews—the followers of Christ—of our day. So camp meeting will be about God's heart and the relationship He's had with us since the Garden of Eden. It's going to be about His desire to re-connect with every human being on planet Earth and re-ignite that strong relationship with those who are Christians so He can walk with us, talk with us, and guide us to the point that we 'follow the Lamb wherever He goes.' Revelation 14:4.

"When John the Revelator was placed in a cauldron of boiling oil, just before he was banished to Patmos, the emperor said, 'Thus perish all those who believe in that deceiver, Jesus Christ.' But John said something like, 'Gladly will I suffer for Christ, who suffered for me!' He didn't say, 'I won't compromise on the seventh-day Sabbath,' or 'I won't give up my belief in the second coming of Jesus,' or 'I won't compromise on the prophecy of the 2,300 days.' No, he said, 'Gladly will I suffer for Jesus Christ, who suffered for me!' He had a relationship with Christ, and that's what kept him strong. As believers, we have a need to reignite that lost relationship and connection from the Garden of Eden with Christ—that abiding relationship that will take us to everything else!"

You're invited to come to our 3ABN Homecoming in person, or to watch it on 3ABNplus.tv. For more information, visit our 3ABNCampMeeting.tv website. We know you'll be blessed, and we look forward to seeing many of you in person! ☺

Due to a surge in COVID-19 cases, 3ABN Homecoming Camp Meeting will now be a virtual-only event. NO ATTENDEES, PLEASE. Don't miss "Something Better" with Pastor James Rafferty.

A Special Way to Serve

Jeff and Charletta Doerr worked hard on their family farm and auction business and raised a beautiful family. Their Christian and family values had brought them respect and success in their southern Illinois community. But things had begun to change in their church worship services, and Charletta was uncomfortable.

“The music had changed, and I began noticing that people didn’t bring their Bibles to church anymore,” she says. “And then there were those times when I couldn’t get a straight answer from the pastor on the things that puzzled me in the Bible.”

Now a new thing was on her mind. Their satellite dish had been taken down from the roof as they remodeled their home, and Charletta decided she didn’t want what those extra TV channels were bringing into her home, anymore. Although the kids didn’t like losing the extra channels, Jeff supported her decision and put up a TV antenna that only picked up local stations, instead.

New Bible Truths

Then Charletta discovered a local 3ABN station and began watching Revelation Insights with Pastor Lyle Albrecht. Soon she discovered the truth about God’s seventh-day Sabbath and no longer felt comfortable worshiping on Sunday. Although Jeff was understandably upset at first, he began studying the Bible with her and became convinced they should worship God on Sabbath, just as Jesus did.

Several months later, they attended the Thompsonville Seventh-day Adventist Church, and were baptized in October of 2005. Through the years, Charletta faithfully served as a head greeter and deaconess while Jeff served on both the church and Conference school boards.

Their family accepted and respected the fact that they no longer worked during Sabbath hours. “That was an adjustment,” Jeff says, “since Saturdays were busy days for auctions. However, our business never suffered but actually grew, and we’ve used that as an opportunity to share about Sabbath blessings with our neighbors and workers.”

“I’ve discovered so much by studying my Bible more diligently,” Charletta says, “and I understand my friends who struggle with the same misconceptions I had. When they bring those things up, I just say, ‘Well, I used to believe that way, too, and after I studied my Bible, these verses seem to go together in a way I’d never heard.’”

Life is Precious

When Jeff accepted his new position as 3ABN Director of Planned Giving and Trust Services, he brought his own life experiences and appreciation for life with him. “Life is fragile,” he says, “and never was it more obvious than the day we got news that our son had suffered a very bad accident and was on a life flight to St. Louis, Missouri. We rushed to the hospital, praying the whole time, and our church family prayed, too. When we arrived, we discovered that although he’d been knocked unconscious, they were nearly ready to release him with only a broken finger and some bruises.”

“That experience made our son realize that God was really looking over him, and he started going to church on a regular basis,” Charletta adds. “He also accepted the fact that he was protected by the holy angels.”

That experience proved to be very valuable as they worked on estate auctions. Charletta says they often witnessed problems with families where no planning was done in advance.

“We saw children fighting over things,” she says, “and we were both certain that if their parents had any idea that might happen, they would’ve done things differently. It’s so sad to see that the lack of preparation often tears families apart—especially since it doesn’t have to be that way.

“I lost my twin sister about three years ago,” she explains, “and she was very close to the Lord and extremely close to me, too. We talked about what happens when we die, and I was also blessed to help her get her affairs in order. As she passed away I had so much peace because I knew she loved the Lord. I think many people are afraid to talk about death, but when we understand the truth, we see there is nothing to fear.”

Jeff and Charletta Doerr welcome every chance to share the good news of salvation and the blessed hope of eternal life as they assist others in planning for the future.

Through his long experience in dealing with grieving families and the dispersal of their material goods, Jeff sees how God has prepared him to minister in a very special way. “I’m grateful that God has called me to serve by sharing the good news of salvation and the blessed hope of eternal life with those who are planning for the future—and after they pass away.”

We are thankful that God has brought us Jeff and urge you to get to know him by calling our 3ABN Planned Giving and Trust Services Department, or visiting our 3ABN.tv website. His love for Jesus is indeed inspiring. ☺

Have you thought about sending someone a card of encouragement, lately? Now you can do that and support 3ABN Kids Network!

Each card features a beautiful nature scene photographed by Tiny Tots host, Cinda Sanner, along with a special Bible promise.

They're a beautiful way to remind someone of God's love, and support your favorite children's network, too.

The Power of a Letter

We should never underestimate the power of a letter when it comes to Christianity. The Apostle Paul and others encouraged the saints through letters—and those letters are still encouraging millions of Christians today!

When you write to us, you make a huge difference, too! Here are just a few of the amazing letters and emails that we've received from viewers and listeners around the world, and you cannot imagine the joy they bring to our hearts!

DAILY ENCOURAGEMENT

Dhanie, emailed us from the other side of the world to tell us, "I am a Seventh-day Adventist from Mauritius, a tiny island in the Indian Ocean. I served for 50 years as a missionary in our Indian Ocean Union of Seventh-day Adventists... and I am grateful for the 3ABN programs available to help us build a solid relationship with Jesus. It's a real blessing to be able to view these wonderful programs that inspire us when we are fearful to go out, or must worship from home. Wonderful messages, music, and advice keep us going and looking forward to seeing our Savior. In these end times, we need to anchor our faith to our soon-coming Jesus! Now that I'm mostly homebound, I am filled with joy to be able to listen to your programs. Surely we will meet at the feet of Jesus!"

Gail, from Montrose, Pennsylvania, writes, "Thank you for being a calming balm during this difficult time, and reminding us these are the signs of our Savior's soon return. My sister and I appreciate your wonderful programs and we look forward to meeting you all in Heaven, soon."

JOY OF DISCOVERY

Grace, who lives in Detroit, Michigan, is excited about discovering 3ABN TV. She writes, "I was baptized two years ago, and since I don't have cable, I scan for new TV stations monthly. Then, last summer, Wow! I found 3ABN! It is so good to hear the gospel 24/7. Keep up the good work. I'm watching on channel 18.5 out of Detroit."

Betty, from Cooper, Texas, writes, "Just a note to tell you how thankful I am that 3ABN has a radio station in Sulphur Bluff, Texas. KETE 99.7 FM is just about 12 miles from my home. I'm happy we have 3ABN so close! I know we're living in the last days and it's good to have a Christian station so close. Keep up the good work."

GRATITUDE BEHIND BARS

Tony, who is incarcerated in an Illinois facility, writes, "My wife and I are new to Seventh-day Adventist teachings. Although we watch 3ABN from separate homes (as I am in prison), we are learning so much, and are grateful for the clear biblical truths and strong leadership on 3ABN."

Chester, writes from a correctional facility in Texas, and says, "As I began this time of incarceration, I was covered with the peace that surpasses all understanding. I would describe it as being washed by God's agape love. Prison living presents daily, diverse challenges, and we are given time away from the distractions of this world to confess our sins and truly repent before God, asking Christ into their hearts. This has led to a desire for many Bible studies. Thank you for the Bibles and the books you send. They will be used daily. Here, where the library is small and hearts are big, they are truly appreciated."

GRATEFUL HEARTS

We receive so many notes from grateful viewers and listeners, like this one, from Vanessa who emailed us saying, "I have been thoroughly enjoying the great insights and analysis of the 3ABN Sabbath School Panel. The energy and synergy creates a dynamic, spiritually stimulating experience that I hope will carry beyond this present quarter and into the next!"

Doris emailed us from the Philippines, saying, "This morning I sent the first of my continual monthly support for your soul-winning ministry. I was one soul you helped see the light some 17 years ago. Danny Shelton and all the Christ-centered folks of 3ABN helped along the way, and I went through the waters of baptism and became a Seventh-day Adventist Christian. The Lord has been using me mightily in His vineyard. I am now the founding college dean of the University of the Philippines College of Medicine, only the sixth Adventist Medical School in the world. Praise the Lord! It is a long and God-orchestrated story. I will tell it to you someday, God willing. May He continue to bless and empower 3ABN's ministry until Jesus comes again!"

And finally, Cynthia from Mt. Vernon, New York, writes, "Greetings to you in the precious Name of Jesus! Enclosed you will find a donation—a small token, but it comes from my heart. Use it to spread the good news, because Jesus is on His way! Have a blessed day."

Your undying support of 3ABN's ministry, and your beautiful letters and emails of encouragement give us fresh resolve to reach the world with the good news of Jesus Christ's soon return! ☺

We see advances in television production technology as blessings from God that allow us to produce more Christ-centered programming for our nine television networks. So lately, we've begun to implement robotic camera systems into our studios. These cameras can be programmed to get beautiful shots that would be difficult for humans to get; but more importantly, they free up talented camera people to do other important work where their human skills are needed.

“Over the years, we've done our best to produce ever-better programming to reach a wider range of people and cultures around the world,” says 3ABN President, Greg Morikone. “We are grateful to God and to each of you for faithfully supplying all our needs, but we continue to look for better ways to utilize the talents God has given our workers.”

USEFUL TOOLS

Greg points out that we first began using robotic cameras and tracks last year to record The Three Cosmic Messages series with Pastor Mark Finley. “This year we've also used them in our 3ABN Summer Camp Meeting, 3ABN Sabbath School Panel, and 3ABN Worship Hour programs, as well as in our music programs, too,” he adds. “And after realizing firsthand how versatile and flexible these systems are, we look forward to outfitting a complete studio with robotic cameras very soon, making it possible to run three studios at the same time with the same amount of crew! No 3ABN jobs will be lost, since we will use our camera operators in pre- and post-production roles, such as program development, editing, and even shooting more things on location.”

3ABN's Production Manager, Jorge Jaque, explains, “We're looking at track-based cameras, free-roaming pedestals, and automated production control systems that allow a remote operator to run multiple cameras from a single controller, enabling more efficient use of our crew. We constantly look for ways to produce more Christ-centered content, and robotic cameras are the most cost-effective way to do more for the Lord while still keeping all our employees. Thank you for making this possible through your faithful support!”

SPICY STEW
Kidney Beans
by Curtis & Paula Eakins

INGREDIENTS

- 2 cups dry dark red kidney beans
- 6-8 cups water
- 2 Tbsp olive oil
- ½ cup onions, chopped
- ½ cup green bell pepper, chopped
- 2 garlic cloves, minced
- 1 Tbsp parsley, minced
- 1 cup carrots, chopped
- ½ cup celery, chopped
- 2 cups tomatoes, diced
- 1 Tbsp fresh thyme
- 1 tsp smoked paprika
- ¼ tsp cayenne pepper
- 1 tsp sea salt

DIRECTIONS

1. Sort and clean kidney beans, then place in slow cooker and add water. Cook on high setting for 6 to 8 hours until tender.
2. In large skillet, add olive oil, onions, green peppers, garlic cloves, and parsley and sauté until tender.
3. Stir in carrots, celery, and tomatoes, mixing well. Add thyme, smoked paprika, cayenne pepper, and sea salt, cooking over medium heat for another 15 minutes.
4. Add mixture to kidney beans, stir, cover with lid, and cook for 10 minutes. Serve over brown rice.
